Law Faculty Directory

Faculty > Faculty Directory > Paul D. Kamenar

DIRECTOR OF THE PUBLIC INTEREST LAW CLINIC AND CLINICAL PROFESSOR OF LAW PAUL D. KAMENAR is also senior executive counsel of the Washington Legal Foundation (WLF), a nonprofit public interest law and policy center based in Washington, D.C., that sponsors the clinic. WLF advocates pro-free enterprise principles, including civil justice and regulatory reforms, through litigation, publications by its Legal Studies Division, and a communications outreach program. Kamenar joined WLF as director of litigation in 1980 after serving as an attorney in the Office of General Counsel of the Federal Election Commission (1975-76) and in private practice (1977-79). From 1984-86, Professor Kamenar taught an appellate advocacy and constitutional law seminar at Georgetown University Law Center as an adjunct professor. He was a member and Senior Fellow of the Administrative Conference of the United States (ACUS) from 1982-1995 and a member of the Committee on Rulemaking.

Professor Kamenar has testified on constitutional and regulatory issues before Congress and federal agencies and has litigated and argued numerous constitutional cases in the federal district and appellate courts, including the U.S. Supreme Court. Author of law review articles, WLF policy papers, op-ed pieces, and chapters of books on legal issues, Professor Kamenar also has been a key speaker at conferences, colloquia, and legal seminars and a guest legal commentator on national television talk and news shows. His expertise is in the areas of administrative law, environmental law, property rights, and federalism issues.
